ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF SUPPORT

Front Entrance and Public Plaza

The construction of the Brooklyn Museum's new entrance pavilion and public plaza was made possible by the City of New York, through the Department of Cultural Affairs, and by the Museum Trustees and friends.

OPEN!

Programs celebrating the opening of the new entrance pavilion and public plaza are sponsored by Altria Group, Inc. Open! family programs are sponsored by Target Stores. Additional generous support has been contributed by Forest City Ratner Companies, Inc., Independence Community Foundation, Piper Rudnick LLP, Tim Nye—The MAT Charitable Foundation, and Sweet 'N Low®. Promotional consideration provided by Amtrak.

Open House: Working in Brooklyn

Open House: Working in Brooklyn is made possible through the generosity of the Horace W. Goldsmith Foundation and the Brooklyn Museum's Richard and Barbara Debs Exhibition Fund. Additional support has been contributed by the Peter Norton Family Foundation, The Lily Auchincloss Foundation, the FUNd, the Museum's Contemporary Art Council, Dr. Alvin Friedman-Kien, The Liman Foundation, and Jane and David Walentas. The Elaine Dannheisser Foundation has generously supported the presentation of the work of emerging artists in this exhibition.

Patrick Kelly: A Retrospective

Patrick Kelly: A Retrospective is made possible, in part, by the Brooklyn Museum's Richard and Barbara Debs Exhibition Fund, Eileen Harris-Norton, the Peter Norton Family Foundation, Trish McEvoy, Daffy's Inc., Linda Johnson Rice, Carol Sutton Lewis, and other members of the Leadership Circle.

Alexis Rockman: Manifest Destiny

Alexis Rockman: Manifest Destiny is made possible by a generous grant from Tim Nye—The MAT Charitable Foundation & Foundation 20 21, and by the Dorothea Leonhardt Fund of the Communities Foundation of Texas. The May and Samuel Rudin Family Foundation supported publication of the exhibition catalogue.

Living Legacies: The Arts of the Americas

Living Legacies: The Arts of the Americas is made possible through generous gifts to "Bridge to the Future: The Campaign for the Brooklyn Museum 2000–2005," with additional support from The National Endowment for the Arts.
