Brooklyn Museum Presents September/October Public Programs For Families and Adults

The Brooklyn Museum will present a variety of family and adult public programs in September and October, including a concert by St. Luke's Chamber Ensemble, gallery talks, and art-making.

FAMILY PROGRAMS

Saturdays and Sundays beginning October 1, 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

ART-MAKING

Arty Facts

For children ages four to seven and their adult friends. Explore the galleries, enjoy a family activity, and create art in each ninety-minute class. Beginning October 1, explore how artists use tone, shades, and color-mixing in their work and create some of your own colorful art to take home. Arty Facts meets in the Rubin Lobby every Saturday and Sunday promptly at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. and offers a different program each day. Please do not bring siblings younger than four or older than seven.

Arty Facts is made possible by the Picower Foundation.

ADULT PROGRAMS

Saturday, September 9, 1–4 p.m. ART-MAKING WORKSHOP
“Memorials”

This workshop invites participants of all ages to explore the idea of remembrance by using clay and wood to create three-dimensional memorials. For inspiration, the workshop will use photographs of a variety of memorials and images of objects in the Museum's Egyptian and African collections related to honoring the dead.

Sunday, September 10, 1–4 p.m. ART-MAKING WORKSHOP
“Memorials”

(See September 9)
